

Press Release

The Association of Ohio Commodores 2014 Summer Induction of New Members

Traci Saliba was inducted into the Association of Ohio Commodores on Saturday, June 28, 2014. The Association of Ohio Commodores held its annual summer induction dinner in Port Clinton Ohio, at The Island House. 17 people from around Ohio were inducted as new members of the Ohio Commodores.

Traci serves as the Director of Small Business and Community Outreach for the Ohio Attorney General. Prior to taking on this role, she served as the Director of Special Counsel and External Vendors in the Attorney General's office of Collection Enforcement. Traci began her career in state government as a Legislative Aide to State Representative Thomas Johnson, then as Committee Secretary for the House Finance and Appropriations Committee. Formerly Traci served as the Chief Deputy for the Delaware County Municipal Court Clerk. (Sponsors: Thomas Johnson and William Morgan)

The Association of Ohio Commodores is a group of individuals recognized by the Governor of Ohio with the state's most distinguished honor, The Executive Order of the Ohio Commodore. Each year outstanding Ohioans are recognized for their business accomplishment, acumen, and leadership with this prestigious honor.

Governor James A. Rhodes formed the Association of Ohio Commodores in 1966 for the purpose of assisting the state of Ohio in advancement in all areas contributing to the growth and development of the state and greater prosperity of its citizens. The association was incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio in 1971 as a non-profit organization and now its esteemed members are primarily involved with supporting the Office of the Governor and Lt. Governor.

The Association is a nonpartisan organization that currently boasts a diverse and dedicated membership of more than 300 men and women. Members include government officials, distinguished university presidents and administrators; banking and legal professionals; leaders of trade organizations; chambers and economic development organization's; and senior management executives of large, medium and small manufacturers from across Ohio in a wide variety of industries.